"Remember What He Said to You."

Reflecting on the empty tomb can help us remember some important things about ourselves and our calling as disciples of Christ. Invite young people to reread Luke 24:1–12.

Directions:

- ▶ In the mouth of the tomb, write a Christian action or attitude that can be hard for you to show or to live.
- ▶ On the boulder, write what keeps you from living this way.
- ▶ On the lines, write what the two angels said in Luke 24:1–12.
